Catalog Description

This course explores basic themes in the American Constitution - popular sovereignty, separation of powers, and federalism - and the historical struggles between various government actors over the allocation of political power in the American constitutional system from the Constitutional Convention in 1789 to the recent con ict over terrorism and state power.

Additional Course Description

What is the proper role of government? How should government be limited, if at all? What are the roles of the branches and how should they interact? What is the role of the Constitution in de ning institutions and their functions? How has our understanding of institutional powers and constraints developed and changed? In this class, we endeavor to answer these questions, among others. Our investigation will primarily focus on the role of the United States Supreme Court and its decisions in the development of these powers and constraints, and will include considering the role of precedent. Furthermore, our investigations will be carried out in a variety of contexts. This course ful IIs the Ways of Thinking: Social and Behavioral Sciences requirement of the Saint Louis University Core.

This course is part of the Saint Louis University Core, an integrated intellectual experience completed by all baccalaureate students, regardless of major, program, college, school or campus. The Core o ers all SLU students the same uni ed approach to Jesuit education guided by SLU's institutional mission and identity and our nine undergraduate Student Learning Outcomes (SLOs).

Course Objectives & Learning Outcomes

This course is designed to help students broaden their knowledge, skills, and values so that

- { Use conceptual tools and methodologies to analyze and understand their social world in the context of the American Constitution.
- { Think, speak, and write critically about human behavior and community in the context of governmental powers and constraints and the American Constitution.
- { Discuss and defend ideas orally, as part of discussion and presentations.
- { Engage in meaningful and productive dialogue with others.

Requirements and Evaluation

Class Participation & Attendance

Absences

Class participation is an essential part of this class, and, thus, your attendance is very important. If you must miss class for a legitimate reason, such as illness, family emergency, or University-sponsored activity, you should contact me via email as soon as possible (which means at least one hour before the missed class whenever possible). The most important factor is communicating to me your need for an excuse. If you have more than two unexcused absences, your class participation grade, which is worth 10% of your nal grade, will be lowered by 2% for each additional day. For example, if you have three total unexcused absences, your class participation grade will be no more than 0% (of the total 10%) and your overall grade in the class can be no more than 90%.

Students are expected to be prepared to discuss the assigned materials every class. Additionally, students will be assigned on-call days on which they will be expected to act as experts on the material - this will include answering in-depth questions about the material and leading class discussion and group work. The following schedule regarding the material may change. Thus, it is very important that you stay abreast of what material will be covered on your on-call days. When in doubt, ask. On-call days will collectively be worth 10% of your nal grade.

Discussion is an essential part of the learning process during which we deepen our understanding of the material, draw conceptual connections, and apply theoretical and legal frameworks to new scenarios. You are expected to be prepared to discuss the assigned materials every class. Students will be graded on their participation based on well reasoned answers, taking part in conversations, thoughtfulness in comments, and active listening. Disagreement and debate is a part of healthy intellectual discourse, and is strongly encouraged. Students must, however, remain civil with and respectful to all members of the class at all times.

Exams

There will be two exams in this course: a mid-term and nal. The purpose of the exams is to test your mastery of the material in terms of both factual knowledge and conceptual understanding. Thus, the exams will consist of multiple question types including multiple choice, short answer, and essay. Essay questions will take the form of hypothetical fact patterns that require students to analyze new situations and construct arguments based on the materials from the course. The nal will be cumulative for the entire course.

Assignments

Policies

All assignment should be in 12 point font, double spaced with 1-inch margins. All assignments are due via Canvas by the start of the relevant class.

Students will be penalized 10% per day on unexcused late assignments. For an example, a brief that would normally receive a 91% would be recorded as 71% if the student turned it in two days late without a legitimate reason. Late penalties are capped at 50% if the late assignment is turned in by the last day of class.

Course Evaluations

Students are required to II out a course evaluation at the end of the course.

Grading

Your grade for this course will consist of the following components and relative weights:

Type	Item	Grade Value
Verbal	Class Participation	10%
	On-Call Days	10%
Brie ng	Case Brie ng Assignments (4)	20% (5% each)
Issue Spotting Opinion Writing	Issue Spotter Exercise Initial Impressions Opinion (Group Project) Final Impressions	5% 5% 10% 5%
Examination	Midterm Exam Final Exam	15% 20%

Barring unusual circumstances, I will provide feedback and grades to you on assignments, on-call days, and exams within one week of you completing the items. In the case of the court assignment, all individual assignments (initial impressions, opinions, and nal impressions) will be graded within a week of receiving the nal impressions. If for some reason I need longer than one week, I will let you know that is the case and when you can expect the

Grades will be assigned by the following scale:

Percent	Letter
of Pts	Grade
≥ 93	Α
≥ 90	Α-
≥ 87	B+
≥ 83	В
≥ 80	B-
≥ 77	C+
≥ 73	С
≥ 70	C-
≥ 60	D
< 60	F

The above scale represents the highest requirements for a particular letter grade. That is, I may, at my discretion, alter the grading scale to require fewer percentage points to obtain a particular letter grade. If you are taking the course on a pass/fail basis, please see me to discuss the requirements for a passing grade. Students auditing the course are expected to attend class and participate in our discussions. Grades of \Incomplete" will only be given after extensive consultation with a student and only in the most exceptional of circumstances.

Important Matters

Academic Integrity and Honesty

Academic integrity is honest, truthful and responsible conduct in all academic endeavors. The mission of Saint Louis University is \the pursuit of truth for the greater glory of God and for the service of humanity." Accordingly, all acts of falsehood demean and compromise the corporate endeavors of teaching, research, health care, and community service via which SLU embodies its mission. The University strives to prepare students for lives of personal and professional integrity, and therefore regards all breaches of academic integrity as matters of serious concern. The full University-level Academic Integrity Policy can be found on the Provost's O ce website at: https://www.slu.edu/provost/policies/academic-and-course/academic-integrity-policy.pdf.

Additionally, each SLU College, School, and Center has its own academic integrity policies, available on their respective websites.

Disability Services Academic Accommodations

Students with a documented disability who wish to request academic accommodations must formally register their disability with the University. Once successfully registered, students also must notify their course instructor that they wish to use their approved accommodations in the course.

Please contact the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) to schedule an appointment to discuss accommodation requests and eligibility requirements. Most students on the St. Louis campus will contact CADR, located in the Student Success Center and available by email at accessi bility_disability@slu.edu or by phone at 314.977.3484. Once approved, information about a students eligibility for academic accommodations will be shared with course instructors by email from CADR and within the instructors o cial course roster. Students who do not have a documented disability but who think they may have one also are encouraged to contact to CADR. Con dentiality will be observed in all inquiries.

Title IX

Saint Louis University and its faculty are committed to supporting our students and seeking an environment that is free of bias, discrimination, and harassment. If you have encountered any form of sexual harassment, including sexual assault, stalking, domestic or dating violence, we encourage you to report this to the University. If you speak with a faculty member about an incident that involves a Title IX matter, that faculty member must notify SLUs Title IX Coordinator that you shared an experience relating to Title IX. This is true even if you ask the faculty member not to disclose the incident. The Title IX Coordinator will then be available to assist you in understanding all of your options and in connecting you with all possible resources on and o campus.

Anna Kratky is the Title IX Coordinator at Saint Louis University (DuBourg Hall, room 36; anna.kratky@slu.edu; 314-977-3886). If you wish to speak with a con dential source, you may contact the counselors at the University Counseling Center at 314-977-TALK or make an anonymous report through SLUs Integrity Hotline by calling 1-877-525-5669 or online at http://www.lighthouse-services.com/slu. To view SLUs policies, and for resources, please visit the following web addresses: https://www.slu.edu/about/safety/sexual-assault-resources/index.php.

Student Success Center

The Student Success Center (SSC) supports students in reaching their goals in and out of the classroom. Providing a variety of resources, the Student Success Center houses both the Center for Accessibility and Disability Resources (CADR) and Academic Support, which includes Tutoring, Supplemental Instruction, University Writing Services, and Student Success Coaching. The Student Success Center is located in the Busch Student Center, Suite 331, and students can make an appointment with any SSC resource via EAB Navigate. To learn more about the Student Success Center and its resources, please visit: https://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/index.php.

University Writing Services

University Writing Services o ers one-on-one consultations with trained writing consultants who help with everything from brainstorming, outlining, and proposing research questions to documenting sources, revising, and implementing feedback. These consultations can take place in-person, asynchronously, or via Zoom and can be scheduled through EAB Navigate Student. Getting feedback bene ts writers at all skill levels on di erent writing projects (including but not limited to class assignments, conference papers, cover letters, dissertations, group projects, multimedia assignments, personal statements, senior capstone projects, short answer questions on applications, speeches, and theses). For additional information, visit https://www.slu.edu/life-at-slu/student-success-center/academic-support/university-writing-services/index.php or send an email to writing@slu.edu.

University Counseling Center Syllabus Statement

The University Counseling Center (UCC) o ers free, short-term, solution-focused counseling to Saint Louis University undergraduate and graduate students. UCC counselors are highly trained clinicians who can assist with a variety of issues, such as adjustment to college life, troubling changes in mood, and chronic psychological conditions. To make an appointment, call 314-977-8255 (TALK), or visit the clinic on the second oor of Wuller Hall. For after hours needs, please press #9 after dialing the clinic number.

Wellness

All students experience stressors and challenges at some point, and seeking support is bene cial. Such challenges may be the result of academic concerns (such as those related to particular assignments or content in a course), or they may be more personal in nature (such as concerns related to relationships, mental health, loss, identities, alcohol or drugs, housing or food security, or nances, among other things). If you experience these or other di culties, please consider seeking support from the resources available to you.

- For concerns related to this course, please contact me. I am invested in your success and will support your success in the ways I can.
- Additionally, you have access to the many resources SLU provides in support of your personal wellness. You will not a list of available resources on the Well-being page of the SLU website.

If you or someone you know is experiencing a crisis: please consult the Crisis Support and Warning Signs on the University Counseling Center website.

In the spirit of cura personalis, the University sees your academic success as connected to your health and well-being and provides resources to support your holistic wellness.

Basic Needs Security

Students experiencing food insecurity, housing insecurity, and any other challenges that are impacting their personal and/or academic wellbeing are encouraged to contact the Dean of Students O ce for support. Students can submit an intake form, email deanofstudents@slu.edu, or call 314-977-9378 to connect with their o ce. Students may also commu-
