Part III: Borrower's Certification

I certify the information contained in this document is accurate and that I am in compliance with the primary care obligations specified in the primary care loan note signed at the time of disbursement. Falsification of certification will result in implementing penalties retroactively, adjusting the repayment schedule from the date of non-compliance. Interest penalties of 2%, 12%, or 18% will occur based on the penalty rate identified within the original promissory note.

I understand I will be required to reaffirm my commitment on an annual basis until the loan is repaid.
